It Sings! It's Playing! It Swings!

Is it Pop ? Is it Jazz?

In any case it's fun with these four colorful artists who revisit Pop standards in their own way!

Hanna Hägglund : " The voice of the North " (vocals, keyboard), Swedish artist, singer, songwriter, with a full background between her own projects and the profession of singer / singer (albums, tours, TV, musicals, dubbing, advertising ...)

Pascal Lafa : " Maestro " (vocals, guitar), in addition to having released several solo albums, he composes for cinema and advertising. He also arranges and produces songs for pop artists.

Nicolas Giraud : " La trompette et le Beat " (trumpet, cajon, vocals). In 1996 he joined Tony Allen's band (Fela's mythical drummer) with whom he performed all over the world. He has also toured and recorded with Claude Nougaro, Keren Ann, Charles Aznavour.

Antoine Giraud : " Le Groove " (tuba). A trombonist by training, he has played with various artists such as Olivia Ruiz, Tony Allen, as well as in numerous world music groups, from the Caribbean to the Maghreb. He teaches at the conservatory.
